WILL HAVE SUNDAY BALL

President Hart Throws Some Light on a Vexed Question.

Chicago Is Auxious to Continue the Sport if League Clubs Will Play.

Chicago, Jan. 21.-"Chicago will have Sanday ball games as long as the people want them, the laws permit them, and we can find a club in the league to play with us," said President Bart, of the Chicago National League Baseball Club vesterday "The story that is going the rounds that the league is considering the abelition of Sunday games prises from pure ignerance of the league constitution. When the amalgamation was made five years ago each club was allowed to take action as it pleased in regard to the Sunday question.
"In consequence of this local option the league is divided into three classes—these Who play Sunday games both at home and abroad, including Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville and St. Louis; those who play Sunday games outside of their home cities

"Each club sends its wishes on the m ter to President Young in December, and the schedule is unde out accordingly, with their Sundays as they desire them. No power in the league can compel a club to play on Sunday, and all talk about such

The defeat of Jack Daly by Charley Mc-Keever, at Philadelphia, does not set well on Daly's many friends here. They thought Jack would come of a winner, but when it is remembered that McKeever is somewhat burder game than Jack has been going prainst, the wonder of the thing will not oppour so great. But at that Daly is a mighty clever boxer, and the victory only proves McKeever is much better man than anybody here regarded him.

Entries for the big six-day race at Chi cogo will close in ten days. More than mixty long-distance racing men bave signi fied their intention to compete. As the promoters have limited the number of einters to fifty, it will be necessary to dispense with the presence of all over that number. Among the entries is Frank Waller. Waller will go in to ride 2,000 railes or over. John Lawson is also training for the race by skating and riding daily in Washington.

The rich stake events of this country sink into insignificance when compared with the English events. To one American even worth $10,000 or $15,000 there are a closes in England. The Cluster Cup will be on of the richest this year. The added mone amounts to $12,750, and in addition the sweepstakes go to the winner. At the Auteuil meeting in June the $15,000 burdle race will be the principal feature. Among other rich events are the City Suburban. of $10,000; the Lapcolnshire Handicap, of $10,000, and the Kempton Park Jubilee,

WHERE IS GERTIE EVANS?

Her Father Fears She Has Met

A general alarm has been sent out to all the stations by Detective Sergeant John-ion to took out for Gertie Evans, thirteen years of age, who ran away from her home at Culpeper Court House, Va., last Thurs-lay, coming to this city. Gertie is deperibed as of "a light ginger cake color and rather stout for her age."

She left her parents' home in company with three other runaway girls, who stop-ped in Alexandria, and were apprehended there. The missing girl has a sister here, Blanche Evans, who resides at No. 1428 Twelfth street northwest, and other relalives. The father, Marshall Evans, at Cul-peper Court House is fearful that his child has met with foul play and offers a re-ward to anyone who will locate her.

It will require three years more to complete the publication, and the total cost will be nearly three millions of dollars. It is probably the most expensive government publication ever undertaken.

WHERE IS GERTIE EVANS?

The meeting was called to order in Pligram Hall by Francis Olcott Ailen, of Philadelphia, deputy governor of the Pennsylvania society. Organization was effected by the election of the Rev. Dr. Rodertek Terry, of New York, as permanent chairman and George Ernest Bowman as permanent secretary. The following officers were chosen: Governor general, Henry E. Howland, of New York; deputy governor general for Massachusetts, Winslow Wargeneral for Massachusetts, Winslow War-ren, of Boston, deputy governor general for Pennsylvania, Francis Olcott Allen, of Phil-adelphia, deputy governor general for Connecticut, William Waldo Hyde, of Hartford; secretary general, George Ernest Boy man, of Boston; treasurer general, Charle magne Tower, jr., of Philadelphia; cap tain general, Dr. Myles Standish, of Bos ton: elder general, the Rev. Roderick Terry, of New York: historian general, Richard Henry Greene, of New York; surgeon general, Orlando Brown, of Connecticut; assistants, Howland Davis, of New York; the Rev. Dr. Edward L. Clark and Frank Will-lam Sprague, of Massachmetts; Edward C. Lee and J. Granville Leach, of Pennsylvania; Percy Coe Eggleston and William M. Stark, of Connecticut. The insignia of the New York society was adopted for the general society, and the New York seal was adopted with modifi-cations. The first general congress will be held in Plymouth in September, on the anniversary of the departure of the Mayflower from England. Much interest has been manifested throughout the country in the formation of this society. It was deemed particularly fitting that the birthplace of the new society should be the spo where the pilgrims landed.
